CHORUS:

Washington was suffering from eight sad years Obama.
Illegals and Muslims were just adding to the drama.
Who, oh, who could drain
The swamp with half a brain?
He glided down, gold all around
The man for you and me.

SEAN HANNITY:

And now it's...
Springtime for Twittler in Washington,
Red states are happy, not gay!
Respect at last for... whitey's face
Black folks, now get back... in your place!
Springtime for Twittler in Washington
This land is your land no more!
Springtime for Twittler in Washington

Puffed up my hair
And tweeted Cher,
Now Hill'ry's lost and through!
